

Donations to Sequoia Coronavirus Response Fund will go to the following organizations:

Local/Regional

Silicon Valley Community Foundation (SVCF) is leading the Bay Area regional response to this pandemic. Funds going to SVCF will go to vetted local organizations across ten Bay Area counties to support immediate efforts to help those in our community most affected by the disease and its impact. Read more about Silicon Valley Community Foundation \(SVCF\).

Additional local non-profits making an impact

Our Sequoia Impact Team and Advisors will continue to evaluate and support non-profits that help underserved and vulnerable communities battling the effects of COVID-19.

National

The CDC Foundation is raising funds to help respond to the pandemic where federal and state funding is not available, including purchasing and delivering food and medical needs to quarantined and isolated individuals. They work closely with state, local, and territorial partners, as well as public health partners, to respond to this health threat. Read more about The CDC Foundation.

Global

COVID 19 Response Fund is raising funds to support the World Health Organization in their efforts to prevent, detect and respond to the pandemic, and develop vaccines, tests and treatments. Read more about the COVID 19 Response Fund.

Global Giving, recommended by the World Health Organization (WHO), is a crowdfunding community that quickly delivers funds to vetted community-led organizations that are best-suited to respond to the unique needs of their community. Read more about Global Giving.
